From the Vicar:

“Today in the town of David a savior has been born to us, He is Christ the Lord” (Luke.2:11)

Greetings in the exalted name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.....

We are approaching yet another season of Christmas. This is a celebration of God’s great promise of a Savior, the redeemer of the whole world. Bible says, He redeems us from our transgressions. According to St.Paul (Romans 3:23) , “ all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God”. When we disobey God and his commandments, we no longer meet His righteous standards. Out of His compassion God sent His only begotten son and through His life, death and resurrection we are redeemed. Through the savior we got a victory from sin and death. We become a new creation, the old is gone and the new is born. The birth of Jesus was the beginning of the end for death. There is a famous statement, “The birth of Christ brought God to man; the cross of Christ brings man to God”. Hence Christmas is God’s intervention in history and fullness of salvation. During this Christmas season, let take God’s gift of His son Jesus Christ to give us redemption from our sins and victory over death.

As we enter in to the month of December, many important programs are awaiting. Our door to door Christmas Carol singing shall begin on Sunday November 29th and continue during the weekends till Dec.20th. The schedule of Carol rounds published in this News Letter. It is my humble request to all our families to open your door for receiving a message of joy and hope. Christmas Carol Service and Christmas Day Holy Communion will be on Dec.24, 5.30pm and Dec.25, 9.30am respectively. We expect all our members prayerful participation and contribution in this year’s Christmas programs. Having come to close the financial year, all members are requested to clear off the subscription and other payments toward the parish.

Our General Body elected new office bearers and executive committee members for the year 2016. I whole heartedly welcome them and wish them all the best in their service in the courts of the Lord.

The year 2015 will conclude in few days. God willing, we will move in to a new year 2016. As we conclude this year what is going on in our mind ? Are we thankful to God for the year gone by ? Looking back, can we say that we were faithful in all things God entrusted us with like time, money, opportunities, skills and talents. Will the Lord rejoice that we used these for the extension of His Kingdom ? Let us remember God's faithfulness in the past that will bring us hope for the future.

May God bless you all and wish you all a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR...

With prayerful regards,

Rev. Shibu Mathew

Vicar

FROM DIOCESAN EPISCOPA:

Dear Friends in Christ, “Let little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these...” Luke 18:16

When Jesus sees His disciples rebuking those who were trying to bring children to be touched by Him, He asks His disciples to allow them to come to Him. Children are a gift from God. Therefore, as a community, we gather to thank God while rejoicing the birth of a child and when celebrating birthdays. Parents are generally keen about celebrating a child’s birthday, but tend to overlook the status of the child’s spiritual growth. Regular attendance of Sunday school classes and worship services is important for a child’s spiritual development. Regardless of the parents’ hectic schedules, it is their God-given responsibility to raise children in the fear of the Lord, and it is a matter that should not be neglected (Deut. 6:4-7; 2 Tim. 1:5).

David Smith Daye, aged 8, living in the Bronx, NY, has a rare genetic disorder that causes tumors to grow in the brain. He undergoes chemotherapy which weakens his immune system. His mother Ms. Scott aged 27, attends to him. She says, “Every time I get work, my son has a doctor’s appointment... I know I need money, but my son comes first”. In an age where we hear that new born babies are thrown out of the window from apartments (several such incidents occurred in NY recently), and little children are left unattended by the wayside and in forested areas (several such children have been picked up by the police), the above-mentioned relationship between David and his mother draws our attention.

Jesus, during His public ministry (Matt. 18:2-3 and Luke 18:17) exhorts all to receive the Kingdom of God like a little child. Bringing up children is also a spiritual exercise and provides an opportunity to learn from them. Ms. Michelle Moon has a child Juliana Snow, aged 5, who suffers from an incurable disease. As Julianna was struggling with her tiring routine of making trips between the home and the hospital, she expressed her desire to remain at home and not go to the hospital. Her mother told her, “Juliana, you’ll go alone to heaven sooner if you don’t go to the hospital”. Julianna replied, “Don’t worry mom; God will take care of me”. Tears trickled down the mother’s cheeks. Controlling her emotions, Michelle said, “Then I will miss you so much”. The five year old replied, “That’s ok. God will take care of me. He’s in my heart”. This is the kind of faith that our children should develop from a very young age, irrespective of whether they face successes or adversities.

Let us not neglect children. They carry God-sent spiritual messages to us.

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER.

One of the stories we associate with Christmas is the story of the wise men traveling to see Jesus. One part of the story that we never really discuss is the deaths of the children who were two and under.

A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation,
Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled,
because they were no more. ~ Matthew 2:18

A similar wailing, lamentation, and weeping can be heard today, throughout the world. Parents are weeping for their children because they are no more. They are no more because of war, terrorist attacks, drugs, violence, etc. People lamenting about losing their jobs, their homes, and their families. Within the past month we have seen the reports of the attacks in Paris and other parts of the world, as well as threats against cities in America. It is in times like this that the true Christmas message needs to be given to the world. People need to understand that Emmanuel means "God is with us." Jesus (whose name means savior), came here to save us and to support us all the days of our lives. He was born in a manger because no one would give him space. He was wrapped in bands of cloth because his parents could not afford anything better. He and his family had to flee to another country to escape death. Jesus the Christ is able to save us and support us, because he has endured the worst situations that this world can give. He has endured poverty, hunger, persecution, violence, and death.

But despite all that, he is still able to love other people, even those who committed these acts of oppression against him. Regardless of the way other people treat him, he still loves them and was willing to die for them. His acts of love, compassion, and forgiveness are what the world needs today. The people of the world need to understand that violence begets violence. Further, some claim that they have a right to do certain things or demand that things be done a certain way, no matter who they hurt. Jesus gave up his rights for others, and he was constantly supporting others.

In Matthew 9:13, Jesus said to the Pharisees, "Go and Learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.'" This is a quote from Hosea 6:6 and this same theme is in most of the books of the prophets. What God truly desires is steadfast love which has to be demonstrated. The best way to demonstrate this is by showing mercy and compassion to those around us. This is the only real gift that God wants us to give to all those around us, not just to our family or friends, but to everyone including those we do not like. The gift of love, mercy, and compassion. As we have freely received so much love, mercy, and compassion from the Lord, may the Holy Spirit enable all of us to show love, mercy, and compassion to all those we meet, all the days of our lives. May we always remember that God is with us, to help, comfort, and save us. Merry Christmas.
