Vicar's message:

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen”
(Luke 24: 5&6)

A well-known preacher was once in his study, writing an Easter sermon. The thought of empty tomb gripped him: “My Lord is living!” With excitement he jumped up and paced the floor, repeating to himself, “Christ is alive. His body is warm. He is not the great ‘I Was,’ but the great ‘I AM.’” Christ is not only a fact but a ‘living’ fact. He is the glorious truth of the Easter Day. We believe in a risen Lord. So do not look to the past, only to His empty tomb, to worship; but look above and worship the risen Lord who is our strength, hope and salvation. So, let us proclaim along with the angels, “The Lord is risen - He is risen indeed - Hallelujah!” I wish you all a happy Easter!

As you are aware from our Metropolitan's kalpana, I stand transferred to Adoor Hermon Aramana as bishop's secretary from May 1. We intend to move from New York on April 25. This is my last chance to address you all through the pages of the Newsletter as the vicar of the Epiphany Mar Thoma Church. I believe that thanksgiving is an important duty of human heart. Therefore I thank God Almighty for giving me the privilege to serve the Epiphany Parish for the last three years. My thanks are also due to our Metropolitan, The most Rev. Dr. Joseph Mar Thoma Metropolitan, and the Diocesan Bishop, The Rt. Rev. Geevarghese Mar Theodosius Thirumeni, for their support, care and guidance.

Epiphany parish is one of the main parishes in the Northeast Region, and unique in many respects. It is one of the foremost parishes and the first to acquire a church building of its own in the Diocese of North America and Europe. Its Sunday Worship Service is also a unique experience. I know that as part of the Mar Thoma Church, you love your church and its ministers through your prayers and resources. As vicar and family, we also experienced your love, care and prayerful support during these three years. You all are considering us as a part of your family. By the Grace of God, the past three years of our life here was joyful and peaceful. From my inner heart, I thank you all for your love and support.

I believe that I have utilized my time and God-given talents for the overall development of Epiphany parish. I have received wholehearted support from the parish office-bearers, executive committee members and organizations' office-bearers. I am happy to mention that in our parish we have a dedicated group of seniors and youngsters who spend their time and talents for the growth of our church. I got their support in conducting worship services (both divine & holy communion), fellowship meetings and conferences, especially in coordinating the 2015 Diocesan Family Conference. All parish members have been helpful to us in various ways to accomplish our pastoral responsibility. Once again I, along with my family, place on record our deepest sense of gratitude to all the parishioners, office-bearers and committee members. I assure our continued prayers for the Epiphany family. Kindly uphold us in your prayers.

I also take this opportunity to welcome our new vicar Rev. Jogy Thomas achen, Lijy kochamma and their two daughters Arpitha and Anugraha . May I request our parish members' prayerful support and cooperation towards their pastoral ministry.

God willing, we are leaving from New York to India on 25th Monday evening.

Our new address :

Bishop's Secretary , Hermon Aramana, Adoor, Pathanamthitta-685 1523 , Ph: 04734 228240

With grateful heart once again I say – Thank you.....

May God bless you all abundantly,

With prayerful regards,

Shibu Mathew achen

FROM DIOCESAN EPISCOPA:

“Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect” (Mt. 5:48)

Dear Friends in Christ,

Of the 50 days of the Great Lent, March 2nd marks mid-Lent. March 20th is Palm Sunday, and then we look forward to celebrating Easter Sunday on March 27th at which time we acclaim the boundless transformation and holistic newness that we experience through the power of Christ’s resurrection. We must proclaim the resurrected and victorious Lord through our lives every day and look forward to join Him in His second coming.

Lent enables us to acquire the ‘mind of Christ.’ During Lent we meditate upon the life and work of Christ remembering the words of St. Paul as we read in Philippians 2: 1-11. We ought to do this not simply to be identified as a religious person but for creating a total transformation in our lives. During Lent, some people turn to God to repent of their sins. This is good, for it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that enables a person to do so. Others give up certain habits that enslave them and prevent them from experiencing the presence of God. That is also good, as we are called to be holy as the heavenly Father is holy. But these alone are not enough. St. Paul is exhorting us to develop ‘the mind of Christ.’ We see ‘the mind of Christ’ in His incarnational ministry, servant ministry, self-emptying ministry on the Cross (suffering ministry), humbling and obedient ministry. Hence God raised Christ from the dead and we recognize Christ as Lord and Master of our lives. Therefore, Lent is a time for this process of transformation where we realize that, ‘for me to live is Christ.’

Jesus, through the Sermon on the Mount, exhorts us to be perfect as the heavenly Father is perfect. This is the meaning of ‘Christian Life’ and the purpose of ‘Christian Living.’ God is not satisfied with anything less. We are called to live by the values of the Kingdom of God that manifests the nature of God-head, the greatest of which is love. Our life must become the manifestation of God’s love (Jn. 3: 16). Jesus gave us a new commandment to love one another as He has loved us. Let us follow in His footsteps.

I wish you all a Happy and Blessed Easter!

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER.

In the days after Easter, we, like the first followers of Jesus have to learn how to walk with the risen Lord. Easter represents a new beginning for all of us. As we look back over the last few months at all that has happened in the world, we realize that there are a lot of tragedies and misfortunes in the world.

In the midst of all these tragedies and misfortunes, the believer's dependence on Jesus is what motivates them to thank God and it is what motivates them to move forward. We thank God for His wonderful care and protection. Further, just as the risen Lord gave joy and encouragement to the disciples, that same joy and encouragement is available for us. That and the power of the Holy Spirit enabled the disciples to live a life different than the life they lived before Easter.

They realized that their Lord and Savior had overcome the powers of this world. They realized that no matter what happened in this world, in the world to come, their God would reward them for living a life of a true disciple. So they tried their best to live a life pleasing to God. They gladly endured pain and suffering for their Savior. They happily sacrificed their own pleasures for the good of others.

Yes, in this world they suffered physical pain and injustice, but in their spirit they were renewed every day. They kept their eye on the prize. For the disciples the Resurrection was not just an experience of life after death. To them, the Resurrection happens every day. For them, the Resurrection is the transformation of all our relationships. A transformation of our relationship with God, and with other people. The Resurrection enabled them to use all the talents and gifts that God gave them to serve others in His Name.

May we all be empowered by the Resurrection, to learn to walk a new way with our God. Further may it also enable us to use all our talents to serve God through serving others.

Yours in Christ's Service,

Rev. Shibi Abraham
