From the Vicar:

“Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, “Thus far has the Lord helped us.” (1 Samuel.7:12)

Greetings in the exalted name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.....

In 1 Samuel chapter 7:5-12, the prophet Samuel calls an assembly of the people at Mizpah for the purpose of interceding for the people’s sin. The Philistines hear of this assembly, and the lords of the Philistines bring a force up against Israel and attack them. But God of Israel save His people from their enemy’s hand. As a symbol of thanksgiving and remembrance, Samuel erects a stone and names it Ebenezer, “stone of help” .He makes a powerful testimony, “Thus far has the Lord helped us”. These words are like a hand pointing in the direction of the past, the ways God guided- whether through poverty or wealth, sickness or health, at home or abroad, trials or triumph. These words also point forward- there are still more trials, joys, temptations and battles, the Lord who thus far has helped you will help you all your journey through.

The shepherds of the Alps have a beautiful custom of ending the day by singing an evening farewell to one another. The air is so pure that the songs can be heard for very long distances. As the sun begins to set, they gather their flocks and begin to lead them down the mountain paths while they sing, “Thus far as the LORD helped us, let us praise His name!”. Finally, as is their beautiful custom, they sing to one another the courteous and friendly farewell “Goodnight! Goodnight!” The words began to echo from mountainside to mountainside, sweetly and softly until the music fades into the distance. Let us also call out to one another through the darkness until the night becomes alive with the sound of many voices encouraging God’s weary travelers.

Think about the moment that has just passed. That particular moment was all new, full of possibilities, decisive, uncertain... God in His grace has allowed us to see the light of the New Year without taking an account how we have fared last year. Let us thank God for His uncountable blessings and innumerable ways of guidance and dedicate ourselves unconditionally to serve God’s will in the days ahead.

Being the vicar of the Parish, I am grateful to our 2015 office bearers and executive committee members for their devoted and sacrificial services. I record my special thanks to Mr. Saji K Varghese(Treasurer) and Mr.Thomas Chacko (Accountant) who did their responsibilities as a team in a good and appreciable way & Mr. Alvin Mathew (Lay Leader- English) who rendered a dedicated service for the last two years. All our parish organizations have also functioned in a very good manner. Thank you very much for the dedicated service of all the outgoing office bearers. New office bearers and committee members will assume their offices from 1st January 2016. I would like to welcome and congratulate the new office bearers and executive committee members of our parish and it's organizations and wish them all the best in their service in His vineyard. I look forward all our parish members active and prayerful participation in our 2015 programs.

Let the God almighty empower and sustain us to live for the glory of His name and the furtherance of His kingdom.

Wishing you all a blessed and prosperous New Year.

With prayerful regards,

Rev. Shibu Mathew

Vicar

FROM DIOCESAN EPISCOPA:

“The tongue that brings healing is a tree of life.” - Proverbs 15:4
“Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing.” - James 3:10

Dear Friends in Christ,

Conversations! We all engage in conversations almost every day. Speaking could encourage others to listen, and listening could encourage others to speak. Elkanah spoke to his wife Hannah, as we read in 1 Samuel 1:8, and that good conversation energized Hannah to gain courage and stop fasting. Rebecca spoke to her son Jacob, as we read in Genesis 27:6, and that conversation brought many struggles and difficulties to Jacob’s life. Hence, conversations can either be good or bad and can produce either positive or negative outcomes.

We now enter into the Advent season. Christmas reminds us of two women - Elizabeth and Mary. We note that they met each other in Zachariah’s house (St. Luke 1:39-45), when Mary went in search of Elizabeth who was in hiding for about 5 months. Mary then stayed with Elizabeth for 3 months. Both were pregnant, and both had experienced unusual pregnancies, hence they longed for privacy. Yet the conversation that happened when both met was amazing as it renewed their status. They overcame fear, anxiety, and shame, and moved to a state of wonder and excitement in what the Lord was doing in and through them. How are our conversations at home, in the church, and in society?

Meaningful and dignified conversations at home make the life of each family member full of joy and hope. Home is a place where memories, stories, and relationships are made and cherished. Home is a place where one must be relaxed and at ease, rather than tense and anxious. Then it becomes a space of significance, meaning, and relevance. In modern society where people live in different life situations because of social, economic, political, and religious reasons, the major cause of hopelessness is the ‘homelessness of the mind’.

In our churches (parishes and congregations), proper conversations help build healthy relationships that enrich humanity. Is our parish uplifting the members to feel at home through positive affirmations, sincere fellowship, and creative participation? How about our conversations with strangers and enemies? Acts 9: 10-18 speaks about Ananias meeting Saul and calling him, ‘brother’. The conversation between Jacob and Esau (Gen.33:10) helps them to see ‘the image of God’ in each other.

This Christmas season let us make our home and parishes better and more hospitable places where our love is shared, lives are loved, and relationships are built through proper conversations. Our relationship with others reveals our faith in God.

WISHING YOU A HAPPY NEW YEAR !

Mar Theodosius+

(From Diocese of North America and Europe The Mar Thoma Besorah)

The Besorah is an Official Publication of the Diocese of North America and Europe.

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.-

2 Corinthians 5:17

The start of the New Year is a time for reflection and a time of great expectations. We reflect on the previous year about the things that we enjoyed and we make resolutions to change the things that displease us. We have great expectations that the New Year will be different, because we think that we can change things to make it better. We hope that by changing external things we will be happy.

But the Bible teaches us that it is God who plans and directs us. It is God who has the power to change us from within, so that we can change our environment for the better. It is trust and faith in God that will give us true happiness and peace that no one can take away. We often pray that there will be no problems or difficulties in our lives. But it is through problems and difficulties that we truly realize the power of God and our own inadequacies. It is through problems that we grow mentally, emotionally, and spiritually.

Remember even though Jesus the Christ was the 'Only Begotten Son of God', he suffered so much on this world, even though he only did what was good. He even told his disciples that '...Servants are not greater than their master. If they persecuted me, they will persecute you,...'(John 15:20.) If we are true servants of Jesus, then we will suffer in this world. A person once said, 'Jesus did not come to make your life easy. He came to make your life great.' Being a servant of Jesus is not easy, but it is a great privilege and responsibility.

This new year, let us rededicate ourselves to the Lord. Let us spend time meditating on His Word, and let us worship Him by loving, serving, and forgiving all those around us. I wish all of you a Great Christian Year.

Rev. Shibi Abraham.
