Vicar's message:

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

Greetings to you all in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. It gives me great pleasure in addressing you all again through this newsletter and I would like to draw your attention to the action plan for the month of June 2016. We, as a chosen people of God are always in need of His undying love and infinite wisdom to carry out our duties and responsibilities in a responsible way.

As per the Sabha Calendar the first Sunday of June is being observed as 'Vidhyarambam' the beginning of a new academic year with the theme, 'the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom'. I believe that since the academic year starts in the month of September in the United States conducting the special worship to mark the beginning of the new academic year in the month of September would be appropriate. The second Sunday is 'Environment Sunday' and the theme for the day is 'we are stewards of the creation., The theme of the third Sunday is 'we are called to be sent' and that of the fourth Sunday 'God's people: the flock of sheep of Christ'. We have to make time to meditate and reflect on these themes so that we imbibe its essence and transform ourselves into a community that can extend help, hope and healing to our fellow beings. I hope and pray that these divinely inspired ideas for life will provide you all the spiritual nourishment and sustenance in the days to come.

The theme for our meditation in the month of May was the work of the Holy Spirit. The scripture lessons and the sermons during the month focussed mainly on the various aspects of the holy spirit. Every year, we remember May 5th as the Day of Ascension. Forty days after the resurrection of Jesus He ascended heaven after entrusting His disciples with the mission of witnessing the resurrected Christ to all till the end of the world. What does this mission mean? It means we have been called to witness the life, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ even in the most unlikely situations of our life. Moreover, the Gospel is Jesus Christ himself. But how can this mission be carried out . It cannot be accomplished by our own ability but can be made possible only by the help of the Holy Spirit.

In St. John 16: 616, we have seen this Holy Spirit (Advocate) sent by God to the Church on the day of Pentecost. This day reminds us ,that the Spirit which is in the world right from the beginning of its creation and the spirit now inside the Church are one and the same and the Pentecost experience helps us to identify the different manifestations of the Holy Spirit which are at work in our day to day life situations. This Spirit is a Strengthening Spirit commissioning us for His witnessing in the world. It is a Spirit of authority, a Spirit of reconciliation and it convinces the world about Sin, Righteousness and Judgement. This Spirit of truth will lead us in fullness of truth. So the work of the Holy Spirit is the continuation and expansion of the work of Jesus Christ to liberate us from the clutches of evil.

In a world of diversity of cultures and contexts it is our great task to become a person led by the Holy Spirit.

Let us pray and work together that we may be led by the Holy Spirit for the Spiritual growth and development of our Church and be willing instruments in the hands of God. May the God bless you all.

Yours in His Service
Rev. Jogy Thomas

FROM DIOCESAN EPISCOPA:

Greetings to all in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

The Christian community, these days observes the events of the Ascension of our Lord and the Pentecost experience of the early church. The presence of the risen Christ and the hope given during the commissioning were very much an encouraging experience to the disciples and the faithful early Christian community. The promise given at the time of Jesus' ascension into heaven was a comforting one giving new vision to move on as witnesses of our Lord. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the power received were occasions of renewed strength.

It reminds us of the fact that, God never fails and that He always keeps His promises. I am sure this is the experience for many of us in our lives. The disciples who were renewed and reinstated went around and proclaimed the Gospel, and they were known as 'people who turned the world upside down'. They received the power of the Holy Spirit, who was with them as their Counselor, who made their life journey more fruitful and rewarding. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide us to carry on God's mission with renewed power. God who created the heaven and the earth is the Giver of life and He is involved in the life-promoting act in history. Jesus Christ is the expression of God the Father, in giving life in its fullness. He gave His life for the sake of all humanity and the world, so that all will have life in abundance.

There are occasions when we feel that life is in danger. The systems and structures of the world often destroy life. The need is to commit oneself to protect life by all means. Life with peace and justice is very much evident in the biblical understanding of the created order. The emergence of structures that promote violence and injustice become a threat to life and to a just society. Religious groups and civil society together need to address the issue of right living by over-coming economic and social injustice, by creating a political will to keep peace and justice in our communities.

Thank God for the good things that we receive and the wonderful ways of divine guidance. The North America and Europe Diocese is blessed with its commitment to uphold the Gospel values and the life-affirming mission initiatives. We continue the process of revitalizing the existing systems in operation and start new ventures as our response to the needs of the people and as our commitment to the word of God. It is our wish and prayer that the spirit and enthusiasm of 'Pentecost' will keep the church as a movement, that keeps our journey forward moving with courage and conviction. We value very much the participation of the faithful members and achen. I am happy to welcome the new achen who have joined the Diocese this year. May God continue to guide us in our task of building the community, and in serving the people, looking towards Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of life.

With prayers and regards,

Rt. Rev. Dr. Isaac Mar Philoxenos

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER.

Then a man named Jairus came. He was a synagogue ruler. He fell at Jesus' feet. He begged Jesus to come to his house. His only daughter was dying. She was about 12 years old. - Luke 8:41-42

In this common passage, we see several qualities of a great father. Here was a person who was not ashamed to seek Jesus. Though he was a synagogue ruler (a prominent person in the community and probably considered very successful), he did not consider any of that when he fell at Jesus's feet seeking help for his daughter. He went by himself and in front of a large crowd he was willing to beg for help. He did not let pride or shame stop him from seeking salvation for his daughter.

Here was a father who wanted Jesus to come to his house. There is a need for people to let God into their lives and homes. Not just in church, but every day of our lives, we need to set an example for our children.

Like Joshua we need to say, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

He trusted in God. Even when he was told that his daughter had died, he still trusted in God. He believed in God, even when all hope seemed loss. Our children need to hear of our personal experiences with God. How in our lives, when all seemed loss, it was God who changed everything. He brought life and hope to a seemingly hopeless situation.

May God enable all of us, especially all the fathers, to truly seek God, to bring him into our homes, and to completely trust in him, especially when things seem hopeless.

Yours in Christ's Service,

Rev. Shibi Abraham
